Biography

Patricia Russell-McCloud is a "visual speaking experience". Her over 20-years on the lecture circuit has catapulted her into being one of the nation's best. Her speaking style is engaging, highly substantive, well researched, pertinent, entertaining, and applicable to her audiences whether public or private sector. She is distinguished and distinct. Her style is classified as "big, broad and animated" leaving her audiences anxious for more.

With each presentation, she demonstrates, yet again, that she is a master at her craft as she artfully seeks to master the spoken word. In sum, this is a "speaker's speaker" who specializes ascertaining the organization's culture, interests and challenges. The client, in turn, receives the value-add of the experience and exposure to this qualitatively measurable speaker who is, in a word, unforgettable.

As a member of the Council on Legal Education Opportunity, (CLEO) she studied at Harvard University, Cambridge, MA. She earned her Juris Doctorate Degree at Howard University School of Law, Washington, DC. Prior to embarking upon her speaking career, Russell-McCloud was an attorney with the Federal Communications Commission, Chief, Complaints Branch, Broadcast Bureau, Washington, DC for ten years. Then she decided to follow her true passion, which was to be a business entrepreneur and global professional orator. Born in Indianapolis, IN, and graduating from Kentucky State University she knew that her true career connection was to prepare meaningful presentations for diverse audiences, and to meet them at their point of need.

Here is a small sampling of what they have to say.

5 quotes immediately above represent a sampling from CABLE members at October 2007 Super Series Seminar, Nashville, TN

"What an inspiring and motivational speaker. Congratulations to you and your committee. I located the Super Series brochure that was in my seat and stuck it in my purse. I'll be at the next two sessions."

"Patricia Russell-McCloud knocked it so far out of the park that we may never see that ball again!"

"What a dynamo speaker Patricia was! Inspiring. I need to re-learn my "abc's". Can't wait 'till the next one."

"Best darn speaker CABLE has ever had!!!!!!"

"To leave a meeting feeling this good and empowered, then walk back into my office and have my two young female employees raving about the speaker is the best!"

"Dr. McCloud provided a wonderful keynote address at our recent Cancer Information Service, National Cancer Institute National Meeting. Her words were inspirational and motivational and the attendees thoroughly enjoyed her leadership insight, energy and message delivery."

Mary Anne Bright, Director, Cancer Information Service
